Transition Information Fair presents future possibilities for youth with disabilities

FAIRFIELD - Parents, guardians and students are invited to attend a Transition Information Fair hosted by the Solano County Office of Education Transition Services. If you have a son or daughter in middle school or beyond who has a disability and/or is in a special education program, it's time to discover the possibilities for their future.

By attending the Fair, you and your child will receive valuable information about various programs and agencies in our community that can assist with higher education and training, employment, and independent living. Over 40 agencies will have representatives available to offer guidance and information about their services.

The Fair will be on Thursday, March 18, at the Solano County Office of Education located at 5100 Business Center Drive in Fairfield (near Costco). You may attend anytime from 5:00 to 7:00 PM.

If you need more information regarding this event, please call 707-399-4830.
