RESOLUTION NO. B13-14-16
FRED KOREMATSU DAY OF CIVIL LIBERTIES AND THE CONSTITUTION

WHEREAS, the battle for civil liberties has been championed by ordinary Americans who have had the courage to stand up and fight for their basic Constitutional rights; and

WHEREAS, under Civilian Exclusion Order 34, based on the federal Executive Order 9066, which imposed strict curfew regulations and required 120,000 Japanese Americans to leave their homes to be incarcerated in American concentration camps during World War II, Mr. Fred Korematsu was arrested and convicted but fought back because he believed the conviction went against the basic freedoms guaranteed to him by the U.S. Constitution; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Korematsu's conviction was ultimately overturned in 1984 – a decision that influenced the U.S. Government's passage of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, which recognized that a grave injustice was done by forced relocation and incarceration of civilian Americans because of wartime prejudice; and

WHEREAS, current California law designates a number of days as having special significance, when public schools are encouraged to observe and conduct suitable commemorative exercises as specified; and

WHEREAS, the History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools, Kindergarten through Grade Twelve, states that the history curriculum at each grade level relating to community, state, region, nation, and the world must reflect and integrate the experiences of men and women of different racial, religious, and ethnic groups; and

WHEREAS, the California Assembly and State Senate passed AB 1775, the Fred Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution, without opposition, and former Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger signed this bill into law on September 23, 2010.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Education encourages all schools and teachers to observe the fourth annual Fred T. Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution on or near January 30th of each year, conduct exercises commemorating the life of Fred Korematsu, and recognize the importance of preserving civil liberties, even in times of real or perceived crisis.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 8th day of January 2014, by the Solano County Board of Education, Solano County, California, by the following vote:

SOLANO COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION
Solano County, California

RESOLUTION NO. B13-14-17
COMMEMORATION OF THE WORK AND WORDS OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.,
AND HIS ROLE IN CIVIL RIGHTS HISTORY

WHEREAS, on August 28, 1963, when the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., delivered his "I Have A Dream" speech in Washington, DC, which has become one of the most notable speeches in our Nation's history, citizens in Solano County and across our great Nation marched peacefully down their hometown streets carrying signs calling for civil rights while singing the iconic song, "We Shall Overcome"; and

WHEREAS, on that historic day, a quarter-million men and women, young and old, filled the Washington, DC, landscape to take part in what Dr. King called "the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of our Nation," as the American people, representing all races, were woven together like a grand human tapestry, sharing in the dream that our Nation would one day make real the promise of liberty, equality, and justice for all; and

WHEREAS, the now-famous March On Washington capped off a summer of discontent when the plea for civil rights was met with brutality and imprisonment for some marchers, yet the resistance continued with a strong conviction that stirred our Nation's conscience and paved the way for two major victories of the Civil Rights Movement: the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965; and

WHEREAS, the March On Washington, having just passed its 50th anniversary, was a demonstration for jobs as well as freedom, and the civil rights coalition understood that racial equality and fairness for workers are bound together, because when one American is treated unfairly, it jeopardizes liberty, equality, and justice for everyone, and so the lessons we carry forward are that: we cannot march alone, our futures are interdependently linked to every other person on earth, and America thrives when we acknowledge our common humanity; and

WHEREAS, it is not enough to reflect with pride on the victories of the Civil Rights Movement, but, rather, we must: continue to make progress during our lifetimes in honor of every man, woman, and child who left footprints on the National Mall or a hometown street; guard against prejudice whether at the polls or in the workplace, on our streets or in our own hearts; and pledge that, in the words of Dr. King, "we will not be satisfied until Justice rolls down like waters and Righteousness like a mighty stream."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Solano County Board of Education encourages students, teachers, and all citizens to commemorate the life of Dr. King on his birthdate, January 20th, and throughout the year by respecting the multiethnic composition of our country and celebrating our diversity with appropriate programs, ceremonies, activities, and cultural events.
