

Exhibit Format

(It is suggested that if everything does not fit on your display board, it should go in your binder.)

(example of poster)

Left side of display board

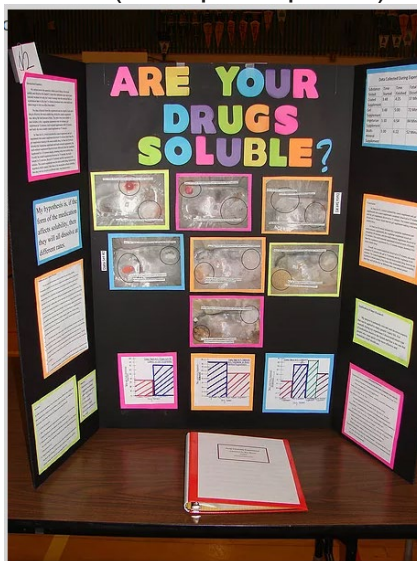

Introduction/Summary
Hypothesis
Background/Literature Search
Design of Experiment (Procedure)

Middle of display board

Title
Photographs
Data
Charts and Graphs

Right side of display board

Conclusion
Application/Future Research
Bibliography

You must include a binder (project notebook) with any information that does not fit on your display as well as the research you did for your project. Hand written notes, calculations, extra pictures, research information, extra data are things that should go in your binder.

Do not put your name or school on the front of the project.