Judging Standards

1. Creativeness

Originality of the problem, uniqueness of approach and the handling, and interpretation of data should be commensurate with the grade level of the student. Ingenious use of equipment and materials is considered regardless of the expense of the items involved.

2. Scientific Thought

The project shows depth of study and effort in employing scientific procedures in the solution of a clearly defined problem including study of background, organized procedures, appropriate sampling, orderly recording and analysis of data and the formulation of logical conclusions.

3. Thoroughness

The study is complete within the scope of the problem. Experiments have been repeated and careful records have been kept.

4. Skill

Credit is given for special skills needed for the construction or use of equipment and for mathematical, computational, observational, and design skills.

5. Clarity

The purpose, procedure and conclusions are clearly explained through the display. The project notebook is well organized, neat and accurate. Sources of ideas, data and assistance are clearly identified.
